

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law. Indiana's privacy law has been so effective that I have been able to cancel my caller ID service with our local phone company - a well appreciated savings for our family budget. I previously rec'd 20 nuisance calls weekly - now maybe 1.